WE USE IT FOR

Habits, routines and facts.

WORDS THAT GO WITH IT

every day, always, usually, often, never, on Mondays

	Formula	Example
Affirmative	S + V1 (add -s / -es after he, she, it)	She studies English every day.
Negative	S + do not / does not + V1	She does not study Korean on Sunday.
Active voice	S + V1 + object	The teacher checks the papers.
Passive voice	am / is / are + V3	The papers are checked by the teacher.

Advice for the teacher.

- Stress the -s after he, she, it. Common mistakes: "he go", "she don't like". Do/does is only for the negative and the question; the verb goes back to V1.
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Present simple: activity

Do A with your teacher, then B and C. Discuss C together.

A. Write the correct form

Use the verb in brackets. Write the whole verb phrase.

1. My brother plays (play) cricket every Sunday.
2. We do not eat (not eat) meat.
3. She goes (go) to class by bus.
4. Our teacher teaches (teach) English at nine o'clock.
5. He does not like (not like) coffee.
6. They start (start) work at nine.

B. Change the sentence

Write the negative and then the passive of each sentence.

1. The cook makes the tea.
   Negative: The cook does not make the tea.
   Passive: The tea is made by the cook.
2. Students write the answers.
   Negative: Students do not write the answers.
   Passive: The answers are written by the students.
3. My mother cleans the house.
   Negative: My mother does not clean the house.
   Passive: The house is cleaned by my mother.

C. Talk with your teacher and your classmates

Discuss each question, then write your own answer in one sentence.

1. Tell your partner about your morning routine.
   Students' own answers. Check the tense.
2. What do you usually eat for breakfast?
   Students' own answers. Check the tense.
3. What does your teacher do every day?
   Students' own answers. Check the tense.

WE USE IT FOR

Happening now or around now; temporary things; fixed plans for the near future.

WORDS THAT GO WITH IT

now, right now, at the moment, today, Look!, Listen!

	Formula	Example
Affirmative	S + am / is / are + V-ing	She is reading a book.
Negative	S + am / is / are + not + V-ing	She is not reading a book.
Active voice	S + am / is / are + V-ing + object	The teacher is checking the papers.
Passive voice	am / is / are + being + V3	The papers are being checked.

Advice for the teacher.

- Do the spelling of -ing: write → writing, run → running, make → making. Do not use it with state verbs (know, like, want): "I know", not "I am knowing".
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Present continuous: activity

Do A with your teacher, then B and C. Discuss C together.

A. Write the correct form

Use the verb in brackets. Write the whole verb phrase.

2. I am not watching (not watch) TV now.
3. They are playing (play) football at the moment.
4. She is cooking (cook) dinner.
5. We are not studying (not study) Korean today.
6. He is waiting (wait) outside.

B. Change the sentence

Write the negative and then the passive of each sentence.

1. They are painting the room.
   Negative: They are not painting the room.
   Passive: The room is being painted.
2. The students are writing the test.
   Negative: The students are not writing the test.
   Passive: The test is being written by the students.
3. Someone is repairing the computer.
   Negative: Someone is not repairing the computer.
   Passive: The computer is being repaired.

C. Talk with your teacher and your classmates

Discuss each question, then write your own answer in one sentence.

1. What are you doing right now?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

2. What is your classmate wearing today?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

3. What are you learning this week?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

EPIC CAMPUS - GENERAL ENGLISH - TENSE BY TENSE

Present perfect

Teacher copy: page 1 filled in

WE USE IT FOR

A past action with a result now; life experience; things that started in the past and continue (for / since).

WORDS THAT GO WITH IT

already, yet, just, ever, never, since, for, so far

	Formula	Example
Affirmative	S + have / has + V3	She has finished her homework.
Negative	S + have / has + not + V3	She has not finished her homework.
Active voice	S + have / has + V3 + object	The teacher has checked the papers.
Passive voice	have / has + been + V3	The papers have been checked.

Advice for the teacher.

- Use V3 (the list from the verb forms tute). Do not use it with a finished time word: "I have seen him yesterday" is wrong; say "I saw him yesterday".
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Present perfect: activity

Do A with your teacher, then B and C. Discuss C together.

A. Write the correct form

Use the verb in brackets. Write the whole verb phrase.

1. I have finished (finish) my homework.
2. She has not seen (not see) that film.
3. We have lived (live) here since 2020.
4. He has just left (just / leave).
5. They have not eaten (not eat) lunch yet.
6. I have visited (visit) Seoul twice.

B. Change the sentence

Write the negative and then the passive of each sentence.

1. They have built a new hostel.
   Negative: They have not built a new hostel.
   Passive: A new hostel has been built.
2. She has written the letter.
   Negative: She has not written the letter.
   Passive: The letter has been written by her.
3. Someone has stolen my bag.
   Negative: Someone has not stolen my bag.
   Passive: My bag has been stolen.

C. Talk with your teacher and your classmates

1. What have you done today?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

2. Have you ever been to another country?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

3. How long have you lived in your town?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

Present perfect continuous

Teacher copy: page 1 filled in

WE USE IT FOR

An action that started in the past and is still going on, or has just stopped; it stresses how long.

WORDS THAT GO WITH IT

for, since, all day, how long, lately, recently

	Formula	Example
Affirmative	S + have / has + been + V-ing	She has been studying for two hours.
Negative	S + have / has + not + been + V-ing	She has not been studying.
Active voice	S + have / has + been + V-ing + object	The teacher has been checking papers all day.
Passive voice	Rarely used in English.	Use the simple form instead: The papers have been checked.

Advice for the teacher.

- The passive of this tense is almost never used. Tell students to use the present perfect passive instead (The papers have been checked). Compare with present perfect: "I have read the book" (finished) and "I have been reading" (still going or just stopped).
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Present perfect continuous: activity

Do A with your teacher, then B and C. Discuss C together.

A. Write the correct form

Use the verb in brackets. Write the whole verb phrase.

1. I have been waiting (wait) for an hour.
2. She has not been sleeping (not sleep) well lately.
3. They have been studying (study) since morning.
4. He has been working (work) here for ten years.
5. We have not been practising (not practise) enough.
6. It has been raining (rain) all day.

B. Change the sentence

Write the negative of each sentence.

1. The students have been practising speaking.
   Negative: The students have not been practising speaking.
2. She has been cooking all day.
   Negative: She has not been cooking all day.
3. He has been learning Korean for a month.
   Negative: He has not been learning Korean for a month.

C. Talk with your teacher and your classmates

Discuss each question, then write your own answer in one sentence.

1. How long have you been studying English?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

2. What have you been doing this week?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

3. Who have you been talking to lately?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

WE USE IT FOR

A finished action at a known time in the past.

WORDS THAT GO WITH IT

yesterday, last week, ago, in 2020, when I was young

	Formula	Example
Affirmative	S + V2 (regular: +ed)	She studied last night.
Negative	S + did not + V1	She did not study last night.
Active voice	S + V2 + object	The teacher checked the papers.
Passive voice	was / were + V3	The papers were checked by the teacher.

Advice for the teacher.

- After "did" the verb is V1: "did not go", not "did not went". Revise the V2 column of the verb forms list.
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Past simple: activity

Do A with your teacher, then B and C. Discuss C together.

A. Write the correct form

Use the verb in brackets. Write the whole verb phrase.

1. I visited (visit) Kandy last year.
2. She did not go (not go) to class yesterday.
3. We bought (buy) tea.
4. They saw (see) the film on Friday.
5. He did not call (not call) me.
6. My father came (come) home late.

B. Change the sentence

Write the negative and then the passive of each sentence.

1. The boy broke the window.
   Negative: The boy did not break the window.
   Passive: The window was broken by the boy.
2. They cleaned the room.
   Negative: They did not clean the room.
   Passive: The room was cleaned.
3. Someone stole my phone.
   Negative: Someone did not steal my phone.
   Passive: My phone was stolen.

C. Talk with your teacher and your classmates

Discuss each question, then write your own answer in one sentence.

1. What did you do yesterday?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

2. Where did you go last weekend?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

3. What did you eat this morning?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

Past continuous

Teacher copy: page 1 filled in

WE USE IT FOR

An action in progress at a moment in the past; a longer action interrupted by a shorter one.

WORDS THAT GO WITH IT

while, when, at 8 o'clock yesterday, all evening

	Formula	Example
Affirmative	S + was / were + V-ing	She was studying at eight.
Negative	S + was / were + not + V-ing	She was not studying at eight.
Active voice	S + was / were + V-ing + object	The teacher was checking the papers.
Passive voice	was / were + being + V3	The papers were being checked.

Advice for the teacher.

- Draw a time line: the long action is a wavy line, the short action cuts across it. "While" goes with the long action, "when" with the short one.
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Past continuous: activity

Do A with your teacher, then B and C. Discuss C together.

A. Write the correct form

Use the verb in brackets. Write the whole verb phrase.

1. I was sleeping (sleep) when you called.
2. They were not listening (not listen) to the teacher.
3. While she was cooking (cook), the phone rang.
4. We were playing (play) cricket at five o'clock.
5. He was not driving (not drive) fast.
6. It was raining (rain) when we left.

B. Change the sentence

Write the negative and then the passive of each sentence.

1. They were building a house.
   Negative: They were not building a house.
   Passive: A house was being built.
2. The students were writing the test.
   Negative: The students were not writing the test.
   Passive: The test was being written by the students.
3. She was cleaning the kitchen.
   Negative: She was not cleaning the kitchen.
   Passive: The kitchen was being cleaned.

C. Talk with your teacher and your classmates

Discuss each question, then write your own answer in one sentence.

1. What were you doing at 8 o'clock last night?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

2. What was your friend doing when you called?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

3. What were you doing this time yesterday?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

Past perfect

WE USE IT FOR

The earlier of two past actions.

WORDS THAT GO WITH IT

before, after, already, by the time, when

	Formula	Example
Affirmative	S + had + V3	She had left before I arrived.
Negative	S + had not + V3	She had not left before I arrived.
Active voice	S + had + V3 + object	The teacher had checked the papers.
Passive voice	had + been + V3	The papers had been checked.

Advice for the teacher.

- Draw two events on a line: the earlier one is past perfect, the later one is past simple. "Had" is the same for every subject.
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Past perfect: activity

Do A with your teacher, then B and C. Discuss C together.

A. Write the correct form

Use the verb in brackets. Write the whole verb phrase.

1. She had left (leave) before I arrived.
2. I had not eaten (not eat), so I was hungry.
3. They had finished (finish) when we got there.
4. He had never seen (never see) snow before.
5. We had not studied (not study), so the test was hard.
6. By the time he called, I had gone (go) to bed.

B. Change the sentence

Write the negative and then the passive of each sentence.

1. The manager had signed the form.
   Negative: The manager had not signed the form.
   Passive: The form had been signed by the manager.
2. They had cleaned the room.
   Negative: They had not cleaned the room.
   Passive: The room had been cleaned.
3. She had written the email.
   Negative: She had not written the email.
   Passive: The email had been written by her.

C. Talk with your teacher and your classmates

Discuss each question, then write your own answer in one sentence.

1. What had you done before you came to class today?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

2. Had you studied English before this course?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

3. What had happened before the lesson started?

Students' own answers. Check the tense.

WORDS THAT GO WITH IT

tomorrow, next week, soon, I think, probably

	Formula	Example
Affirmative	S + will + V1	She will call you tomorrow.
Negative	S + will not (won't) + V1	She will not call you tomorrow.
Active voice	S + will + V1 + object	The teacher will check the papers.
Passive voice	will + be + V3	The papers will be checked.

Advice for the teacher.

- "Will" is the same for every subject and is followed by V1 (never "will goes"). "Going to" is the plan form; keep it for later.
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Future simple: activity

Negative	S + will not + be + V-ing	She will not be studying at eight.
Active voice	S + will + be + V-ing + object	The teacher will be checking the papers.
Passive voice	Rarely used in English.	Use the simple form instead: The papers will be checked.

Advice for the teacher.

- The passive is very rare and sounds heavy ("will be being checked"). Use the future simple passive instead (The papers will be checked).
- Do A together on the board, then B alone, then check as a class.
- Do C by discussion, in pairs and then as a group. Correct the tense kindly and straight away.

Future continuous: activity
