GRAMMAR & WRITING | DAY 16 · SAT 14 NOV · 9:00 TO 10:30

Telling a story in order

Travel stories

Sequencing words: first, then, after that, finally. Past simple. Writing a short travel story.

1 Sequencing words

- Start: First, / At the beginning, / One day,
- Middle: Then, / After that, / Next, / Later, / Suddenly,
- End: Finally, / In the end, / At last,
- Put a comma after them at the start of a sentence: After that, we got on the train.

2 Irregular past verbs you need

- go → went, take → took, get → got, see → saw, eat → ate, buy → bought, leave → left, lose → lost, find → found, come → came, have → had, feel → felt

3 Put the story in order

Number the sentences 1 to 6.

1. _____ Finally, we arrived in Ella at 6 pm, tired but happy.
2. _____ First, we went to Kandy station at 7 am.
3. _____ Then, the train left and we saw beautiful tea plantations.
4. _____ After that, we bought our tickets and some vadai.
5. _____ Suddenly, it started to rain and the train stopped for an hour.
6. _____ Later, the rain stopped and the train started again.

4 Read the model

The day I got lost in Colombo

Last year I went to Colombo for the first time to visit my aunt. I was sixteen and I was very excited.

First, I took the bus from Galle. The journey was three hours long and I slept most of the way. When I got off at Pettah, the bus stand was very crowded and noisy.

Then, I looked for my aunt, but I couldn't find her. My phone battery was dead! I felt scared. After that, I asked a shopkeeper for help. He was very kind. He let me use his phone and I called my aunt.

Finally, she came and found me thirty minutes later. We laughed about it and she bought me an ice cream. I learned an important lesson: always charge your phone before a trip!

5 Plan your story

- When and where? Who were you with?
- First... (the start)
- Then / After that... (what happened, a problem?)
- Finally... (the end)
- How did you feel? What did you learn?

6 Write your story

Write about a trip you remember: 100 to 120 words. Use 4 sequencing words and 5 past verbs. Tonight is Presentation night #2, "My best memory", so you can use this story!

Can you do it? Sequencing words: first, then, after that, finally. ○ ○ ○

SPEAKING · DAY 16 · SAT 14 NOV · 10:45 TO 12:00

Telling a short travel story

Travel stories

Telling a story with sequencing and feelings. Listening and reacting. Preparing for Presentation night #2.

1 Useful language

To...	Say
start	Let me tell you about... / This happened last year when...
order events	First... Then... After that... Suddenly... In the end...
say how you felt	I was so nervous / excited / scared / relieved.
end	It was the best day ever. / I'll never forget it.
react (listener)	Really? / Oh no! / What happened next? / That's amazing!

READING & VOCABULARY · DAY 17 · SUN 15 NOV · 1:00 TO 2:00

Body, health and the doctor

Week 3 review + health

Body and health words. Reading a student health guide.

1 Body and health

head · throat · stomach · back · tooth · headache · sore throat · stomach ache · fever · cough · cold · medicine · prescription · appointment · health insurance

2 Talking about health

- I have a headache / cold / fever / cough / sore throat.
- My back hurts. My stomach hurts.
- I feel sick / tired / dizzy.
- You should see a doctor. You should drink water and rest.

3 Read the health guide

Staying healthy in Korea: advice for international students

Health insurance. All international students in Korea must have national health insurance. It costs about 70,000 won a month. With insurance, a visit to a small clinic costs only around 5,000 to 10,000 won.

Small problems. For a cold, a sore throat or a headache, go to a pharmacy first. Pharmacists can give you medicine without a prescription. Many pharmacies close at 9 pm, but some convenience stores sell basic medicine like painkillers.

Seeing a doctor. For a fever that lasts more than two days, a bad cough or a stomach ache that doesn't stop, see a doctor at a clinic. You usually don't need an appointment. Take your alien registration card (ARC) and your insurance details. The doctor gives you a prescription and you take it to the pharmacy next door.

Emergencies. Call 119 for an ambulance. It is free. Hospitals in big cities have international clinics with English-speaking staff.

Winter health. Korean winters are very cold and dry. Wear warm clothes, drink plenty of water and wash your hands often. Many students catch a cold in their first winter.

Your mind matters too. Feeling homesick or stressed is normal. Talk to friends, call your family and visit the university counselling centre. It is free and confidential.

4 Choose the correct answer

1. Where should you go first for a sore throat?
   A a hospital B a pharmacy C call 119
2. What do you need a prescription for?
   A medicine from a doctor B painkillers from a convenience store C insurance
3. When should you see a doctor for a fever?
   A immediately B after more than two days C never
4. What number do you call for an ambulance?
   A 911 B 112 C 119
5. The counselling centre is...
   A expensive B free C only for Korean students

5 Problem and advice

1. I have a headache. _____
2. I feel homesick. _____
3. I have a bad cough and a fever for three days. _____
4. I cut my hand badly and it won't stop bleeding. _____
5. I always catch colds in winter. _____

A Call 119 or go to the hospital.

B Wear warm clothes and wash your hands often.

C Take a painkiller from the pharmacy and rest.

D Talk to friends and call your family.

E See a doctor at a clinic.

6 Give advice

Your friend in Korea writes: "I feel sick, I have a sore throat and I don't know what to do." Write a reply with 4 pieces of advice using should.

A in an office, with numbers and money

B in a hospital

C in a kitchen

D with computers and networks

E on a farm

F with two languages, in a company or online

3 Read the careers page

After graduation: careers for international students

Every year, thousands of international students graduate from Korean universities. What happens next?

Staying in Korea. Graduates can apply for a D-10 visa to look for a job for up to six months. Korean companies need workers with language skills, especially Korean, English and an Asian language like Sinhala, Vietnamese or Nepali. Jobs in engineering, IT, nursing and hotels are popular. A starting salary for a graduate is often 2.5 to 3 million won a month.

Part-time jobs during your studies. Students on a D-2 visa can work part-time, usually up to 20 to 25 hours a week during the semester, with permission from the university. Common jobs are in cafés, restaurants, convenience stores and as language tutors. They help you practise Korean and earn money, but don't let work hurt your grades!

Going home. Many graduates return to their home country. They work for Korean companies abroad, in tourism, or as Korean teachers and translators. Sri Lanka has Korean companies in construction, textiles and IT.

What employers want. We asked five Korean managers. They all said the same three things: good Korean (TOPIK 4 or higher), work experience, and a positive attitude. One manager said: "I will always choose the student who is friendly and works hard over the student with perfect grades."

4 True or false?

1. Graduates can stay six months to look for a job. T F
2. Korean companies only want Korean speakers. T F
3. A starting salary is often 2.5 to 3 million won a month. T F
4. D-2 students can work full-time. T F
5. Part-time jobs can help your Korean. T F
6. All graduates stay in Korea. T F
7. Employers want TOPIK 4 or higher. T F

5 Answer the questions

1. Name three popular job areas for graduates.

2. Where do students often work part-time?

3. What three things do employers want?

4. What did one manager say is more important than perfect grades?

6 Your future job

Write 5 sentences: What job do you want? Where? Why? What skills do you need? Use will and want to.

Can you do it? Job words and workplaces. ○ ○ ○

My plans for my first month in Korea

I am going to fly to Korea in February. It's going to be my first time on a plane!

In my first week, I'm going to go to the orientation at my university. I'm going to open a bank account, get a Korean SIM card and apply for my ARC. I'm also going to buy a warm jacket because it's going to be cold.

After that, I'm going to start my Korean language course. I'm going to study hard because I need TOPIK level 3 before I start my degree. I'm going to join a university club, maybe the badminton club, to make Korean friends.

I'm not going to spend a lot of money in the first month. I'm going to cook in the dormitory kitchen and send photos to my family every weekend.

4 Your plans

Make notes.

Talking about plans

My plans

Plans and arrangements with going to. Inviting, accepting and refusing.

1 Useful language

To...	Say
ask about plans	What are you going to do this weekend / after the programme?
talk about plans	I'm going to... / I'm planning to... / I'm hoping to...
invite	Would you like to...? / Do you want to...? / Why don't we...?
accept	Sure, I'd love to! / Sounds great! What time?
refuse politely	Sorry, I can't. I'm going to... / I'd love to, but...
agree a time	How about Saturday at 3? / Let's meet at the main gate.

2 My week in Korea

Fill in 4 plans. Leave 3 spaces free. Then invite classmates to do things and agree times.

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Saturday
Sunday
Monday

3 Invitation ideas

IN SEOUL

- visit Gyeongbokgung Palace
- go shopping in Myeongdong
- see the Han River at night

AT UNIVERSITY

- join the badminton club

GRAMMAR & WRITING · DAY 21 · THU 19 NOV · 9:00 TO 10:30

Comparing two universities

Studying abroad

Comparatives and superlatives. Writing a comparison paragraph.

1 Comparatives and superlatives

- Short words: cheap → cheaper → the cheapest. big → bigger → the biggest. easy → easier → the easiest.
- Long words: more expensive → the most expensive. more modern → the most modern.
- Irregular: good → better → the best. bad → worse → the worst. far → further → the furthest.
- Use than: Seoul is bigger than Daejeon. Use as... as: Busan is as beautiful as Jeju? No, it is not as beautiful as Jeju.

2 Write the comparative

1. Korea is _____ (cold) than Sri Lanka.
2. English is _____ (easy) than Korean for me.
3. The dormitory is _____ (cheap) than an apartment.
4. Seoul is _____ (expensive) than Daejeon.
5. My Korean is _____ (good) now than last month.

3 Compare the universities

	University A (Seoul)	University B (Daejeon)
Students	25,000	12,000
Dormitory cost / month	₩450,000	₩250,000
Distance to the sea	1 hour	2.5 hours
International students	3,000	800
Ranking in Korea	15th	40th
Part-time jobs nearby	many	some

4 Write sentences about the table

1. University A is _____ than University B. (big)
2. The dormitory at B is _____. (cheap)
3. A has _____ international students. (many)
4. A is _____ to the sea. (close)
5. In the ranking, A is _____. (high)

5 Read the model

Which university is better for me?

University A in Seoul and University B in Daejeon are both good choices, but they are very different.

University A is bigger and more famous than University B. It is higher in the national ranking and there are more international students, so it is easier to find friends from other countries. There are also more part-time jobs in Seoul.

However, University B is much cheaper. The dormitory costs ₩250,000 a month, which is ₩200,000 less than at University A. Daejeon is also quieter and less crowded than Seoul.

For me, University B is the best choice. I need to save money, and I think a smaller city is better for studying Korean, because fewer people speak English there.

6 Your comparison

Compare two places you know (two cities, two schools or Sri Lanka and Korea). Write 100 to 120 words with at least 5 comparatives, 1 superlative and your opinion at the end.

Can you do it? Comparatives and superlatives. ○ ○ ○

SPEAKING · DAY 21 · THU 19 NOV · 10:45 TO 12:00

Comparing countries and universities

Studying abroad

Comparing and giving opinions. Small-group discussion skills.

1 Useful language

To...	Say
compare	Korea is colder than Sri Lanka. / Seoul is the biggest city.
give an opinion	In my opinion... / I think... / For me, the most important thing is...
agree	I agree. / That's true. / Exactly!
disagree politely	I see your point, but... / I'm not sure. I think...
ask others	What do you think? / Do you agree?

2 Discussion cards

CARD 1

- Is it better to study in a big city or a small city? Why?

CARD 2

- What is more important: a famous university or a cheap one?

CARD 3

- Compare life in Sri Lanka and life in Korea: food, weather, transport, people.

CARD 4

- What is the hardest thing about studying abroad? What is the best thing?

3 Rank the factors

Rank these from 1 (most important) to 6 when choosing a university. Then agree a group ranking.

Factor	Me	My group
Cost
Ranking / reputation
Location
Part-time jobs nearby
Number of international students
Scholarship available

Can you do it? Comparing and giving opinions. ○○○

READING & VOCABULARY | DAY 22 · FRI 20 NOV · 1:00 TO 2:00

Rules, culture and daily life

Life in Korea

Words for rules and culture. Reading a guide to everyday life in Korea.

1 Rules and culture

bow | polite | rude | elder | take off your shoes | recycling | rubbish | separate | queue | quiet | tip (money) | chopsticks | allowed | not allowed | custom

2 Rules: must, have to, should

- must / have to: it is a rule. You must separate your rubbish. You have to show your student card.
- mustn't: it is not allowed. You mustn't smoke in the dormitory.
- don't have to: it is not necessary. You don't have to tip in restaurants.
- should: it is good advice. You should learn some Korean phrases.

3 Read the guide

Ten things to know about everyday life in Korea

1. Age matters. Koreans often ask your age when they meet you. It helps them choose polite language. Speak politely to older people and bow a little when you greet them.

2. Two hands. When you give or receive something from an older person, such as money or a gift, use two hands.

3. Shoes off. Take off your shoes when you enter a home, and in some restaurants and dormitory rooms.

4. Rubbish rules. You must separate your rubbish into general waste, food waste and recycling. In many areas you have to buy special bags for general waste. You can get a fine if you don't follow the rules.

5. Quiet on public transport. People don't talk loudly on the subway, and they don't eat there. Some seats are for elderly, pregnant and disabled people. Keep them free.

6. No tipping. You don't have to tip in restaurants or taxis.

7. Eating together. Wait for the oldest person to start eating. Don't stick your chopsticks straight up in a bowl of rice; it is connected to funerals.

8. Fast internet, fast life. Everything is quick: delivery, buses, service. Korean people say "ppalli ppalli" (hurry, hurry)!

9. Safety. Korea is very safe. People often leave laptops and phones on café tables. But always keep your passport and ARC safe.

10. Learn a few words. Even "annyeonghaseyo" (hello) and "gamsahamnida" (thank you) make people smile.

4 Must, mustn't, don't have to or should?

Complete with the right phrase, using the guide.

Situation	Rule
separate your rubbish	You _____
tip a taxi driver	You _____ eat on the subway	You _____ learn some Korean words	You _____ keep your passport safe	You _____
use two hands with elders	You _____

5 Answer the questions

1. Why do Koreans ask your age?

2. Where do you take off your shoes? (two places)

_____

3. What three kinds of rubbish are there?

4. Why shouldn't you put chopsticks straight up in rice?

5. What does "ppalli ppalli" mean?

6 Sri Lanka and Korea
