GRAMMAR & WRITING · DAY 23 · SAT 21 NOV · 9:00 TO 10:30

Writing to the university

Writing emails

Formal vs informal emails. Polite request language. Writing a formal email.

1 Formal or informal?

	Informal (a friend)	Formal (the university)
Start	Hi Kasun, / Hey!	Dear Ms Park, / Dear Sir or Madam,
Reason	Just a quick message about...	I am writing to ask about...
Request	Can you send me...?	Could you please send me...? / I would be grateful if you could...
Contractions	I'm, don't, can't	I am, do not, cannot
End	See you soon! / Take care,	I look forward to hearing from you. / Thank you for your help.
Sign off	Love, / Cheers, + first name	Yours sincerely, / Best regards, + full name

2 Make it formal

Rewrite each sentence in formal language.

1. Hi! →
2. I wanna ask about the dorm. →
3. Send me the form. →
4. Thanks a lot! →
5. Bye, Kavi →

3 Read the model

Formal email

Subject: Question about accommodation, student number 2026-1182

Dear Ms Park,

I am writing to ask about accommodation for new international students. I am a new student in the Korean Language Programme, starting in March 2026.

I would like to stay in the university dormitory. Could you please tell me how much it costs per month and whether meals are included? I would also be grateful if you could send me the application form.

In addition, I would like to know if there is a kitchen in the dormitory, as I am vegetarian and would like to cook my own food.

Thank you very much for your help. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
Dilini Perera

4 The parts of a formal email

- Subject line: short and clear
- Greeting: Dear + title + surname
- Paragraph 1: who you are and why you are writing
- Paragraph 2 (and 3): your questions or requests, politely
- Closing line and sign off with your full name

5 Write a formal email

Write to the International Office (90 to 120 words). You arrive on 28 February at 6:40 am. Ask: 1) can someone meet you at the airport, 2) what documents to bring to orientation, 3) where to buy a SIM card.

Can you do it? Formal vs informal emails. ○ ○ ○

SPEAKING · DAY 23 · SAT 21 NOV · 10:45 TO 12:00

Polite requests

Writing emails

Making polite requests on the phone and in person, and responding to them.

1 Useful language: from direct to polite

Direct (can sound rude)	Polite
Give me the form.	Could you give me the form, please?
I want to change my room.	Would it be possible to change my room?
Help me.	Could you help me, please?
Say it again.	Sorry, could you say that again, please?
Speak slowly.	Could you speak a bit more slowly, please?
Where is the office?	Excuse me, could you tell me where the office is?

2 Responding

Yes	No (politely)
Sure. / Of course. / No problem.	I'm sorry, I'm afraid I can't...
Certainly. Here you are.	Sorry, that's not possible, but you could...

3 Role-plays at the university

1. INTERNATIONAL OFFICE

- Student: you lost your student card. Ask for a new one.
- Staff: ask for their name, student number and a photo. It costs ₩5,000.

2. DORMITORY

- Student: your room heater is broken and it's very cold. Ask for help.
- Staff: a technician can come tomorrow at 10. Offer an extra blanket tonight.

3. PROFESSOR

- Student: you were sick and missed the test. Ask to take it later.
- Professor: ask for a doctor's note. Offer next Tuesday.

4. BANK

- Student: you want to open an account. Ask what documents you need.
- Staff: passport, ARC, student card, Korean phone number.

4 Debate night #2 tonight: Is studying abroad worth it?

- Think about: cost, family, career, language, culture shock, independence.
- Prepare 2 points for and 2 against. You will find out your side at the start!

Can you do it? Making polite requests on the phone and in person, and responding to them. ○ ○ ○

READING & VOCABULARY · DAY 24 · SUN 22 NOV · 1:00 TO 2:00

Personality and skills

Strengths & goals

Words for personality and skills. Reading three short scholarship statements.

1 Personality and skills

hard-working · reliable · patient · confident · friendly · organised · creative · responsible · a team player · a good listener · leadership · problem-solving · communication skills

2 Match the person and the word

1. She never misses a deadline. _____
2. He stays calm when things are slow. _____
3. She can speak in front of 100 people. _____
4. He always has new ideas. _____
5. She plans everything in a diary. _____
6. He works well in a group. _____

A creative

B patient

C a team player

D confident

E organised

F reliable

3 Read the statements

Why should we choose you? Three answers

Amaya (wants to study nursing). I am patient and a good listener. When my grandmother was sick for a year, I helped care for her every day after school. I learned how to give medicine and how to stay calm. That experience is the reason I want to become a nurse. I am also hard-working: I studied Korean by myself for six months before this programme.

Ravindu (wants to study mechanical engineering). I love solving problems. At home, I repair bicycles and motorbikes for my neighbours, and last year I built a small water pump for our garden. I am not the most confident speaker, but I am improving. I am reliable: in two years at my part-time job, I was never late.

Hiruni (wants to study tourism). I am friendly and I enjoy meeting people from other countries. I worked as a volunteer guide at Galle Fort for one summer and showed visitors from Germany, China and Korea around the city. I am a team player and I was the leader of our school's English club. My goal is to bring more Korean tourists to Sri Lanka.

4 Complete the table

Name	Two strengths	Example (proof)
Amaya
Ravindu
Hiruni

5 Answer the questions

1. Why does Amaya want to become a nurse?

2. What weakness does Ravindu talk about?

3. What is Hiruni's goal?

4. Which answer is the best, in your opinion? Why?

6 Your strengths

Write 3 strengths. For each one, give a real example from your life. Strength, then example.

Can you do it? Words for personality and skills. ○ ○ ○

LISTENING · DAY 24 · SUN 22 NOV · 2:15 TO 3:15

Students describe their goals

Strengths & goals

Listening for goals, reasons and plans. Understanding longer answers.

Your teacher reads the recording aloud twice. Read the questions first so you know what to listen for.

1 Part 1: three students, three goals

Listen and complete.

Name	Wants to study	Goal after graduation	Strength they mention
Nethmi
Lakshan
Yasodha

2 Part 2: details

1. Why did Nethmi choose IT?
   A her brother works in IT B she built an app C it pays well
2. What problem does Lakshan want to solve?
   A traffic B water for farmers C pollution
3. Where does Yasodha want to work?
   A in a hotel in Korea B in a hospital C at an airport in Sri Lanka
4. Which student mentions a weakness?
   A Nethmi B Lakshan C Yasodha

3 Discuss

- Which student has the clearest goal? Why?
- What is your goal after graduation? What strength will help you?

Can you do it? Listening for goals, reasons and plans. ○ ○ ○

READING & VOCABULARY

DAY 25 · MON 23 NOV · 1:00 TO 2:00

Phrases for a personal statement

Personal statement

Reading two model personal statements and choosing useful phrases.

1 Useful phrases

- I am applying for
- I have always been interested in
- This experience taught me
- In the future, I hope to
- I believe I am a good candidate because
- My long-term goal is
- I am particularly interested in
- I would like to contribute

2 Read statement A

Statement A: Nursing (148 words)

I am applying for the Bachelor of Nursing at Chungbuk University because I want to help people and I am very interested in healthcare in Korea.

I have always been interested in medicine. When my grandmother was ill for a year, I helped to care for her every day. This experience taught me to be patient, calm and responsible.

I finished my A/Ls in the science stream in 2024. Since then, I have worked as an assistant at a pharmacy in Matara, where I learned how to talk to patients and explain instructions clearly.

I believe I am a good candidate because I am hard-working and I learn quickly. I studied Korean by myself for six months and I am now preparing for TOPIK I.

In the future, I hope to work in a Korean hospital. My long-term goal is to return to Sri Lanka and train young nurses.

3 Read statement B

Statement B: Engineering (92 words)

I want to study engineering in Korea. Korea is a very good country. It has many good companies like Samsung and Hyundai. I like engineering very much. I am a good student. My A/L results are good. I like maths and physics. I also like playing cricket and watching movies. I am friendly and I have many friends. Korea is very beautiful and I like Korean food. Please give me this scholarship. I will study very hard. Thank you very much. I hope you choose me for this scholarship.

4 Compare A and B

Tick (✓) the statement that does each thing.

Does the writer...	A	B
name the course and the university?
explain why they are interested, with a real story?
give examples to prove their strengths?
talk about future goals?
include information that is not relevant?
use paragraphs?

5 Improve statement B

Rewrite these sentences from B to make them stronger.

1. "I like engineering very much." →

2. "I am a good student." →

3. "Please give me this scholarship." →

6 Plan your statement

Make notes for your own statement: course and university / why (a story) / your education / two strengths with examples / your future goal.

Can you do it? Reading two model personal statements and choosing useful phrases. ○ ○ ○

LISTENING · DAY 25 · MON 23 NOV · 2:15 TO 3:15

Feedback on personal statements

Personal statement

Listening to a teacher give feedback on statements. Understanding advice and applying it.

Your teacher reads the recording aloud twice. Read the questions first so you know what to listen for.

1 Part 1: feedback on two statements

Listen to a teacher giving feedback. Write what is good and what to improve.

Statement	Good	Improve
Kasun's statement
Hiruni's statement

2 Part 2: general tips

Listen to the end of the talk. True or false?

1. A statement should be about 300 words. T F
2. You should give real examples. T F
3. It's OK to copy a statement from the internet. T F
4. You should ask someone to check your grammar. T F
5. The last sentence should talk about your future. T F

3 Improve your statement

Write two changes you will make to your own statement after today's feedback.

Can you do it? Listening to a teacher give feedback on statements. ○ ○ ○

Answers with point, reason, example

The scholarship interview

Structuring answers: point, reason, example (PRE). Linking with because, so, for example, also.

1 The PRE answer

- Point: answer the question directly. "I want to study nursing."
- Reason: say why. "because I enjoy helping people and healthcare is growing."
- Example: prove it with something real. "For example, I cared for my grandmother for a year..."
- (Link back): "So, I believe nursing is the right career for me."

2 Useful linking words

give a reason	because, as, the main reason is give a result	so, that is why
give an example	for example, for instance, when I...
add a point	also, in addition, another reason is contrast	but, however, although

3 Read two answers

Question: Why do you want to study in Korea?

Answer 1: Because Korea is good. I like Korea. I like K-pop and Korean food. Korea is a developed country. I want to go.

Answer 2: I want to study in Korea because it is a world leader in technology and education. For example, Korean companies like Samsung and LG are famous all over the world, and Korean universities have excellent engineering programmes. Also, I have studied Korean for six months and I really enjoy learning the language. So I believe studying in Korea will give me the best start to my career.

4 Analyse answer 2

Copy the words from answer 2.

2 Read the email

From: International Office, Hanbit University

Subject: Welcome to Hanbit University! Your arrival information

Dear new international students,

Congratulations on your scholarship! We are writing to give you important information about your arrival.

Arrival. You will arrive at Incheon Airport. Our student volunteers will meet you at Gate 6 in Terminal 1. They are going to wear blue T-shirts with the university name. The bus to the campus takes about three hours.

Accommodation. You will live in International House, our newest dormitory. Rooms are for two students. It is cheaper than private housing and it is the best place to make friends. Please note: you must not cook in your room. There is a shared kitchen on each floor.

Orientation week. Orientation starts on Monday 2 March. You must attend all sessions. You will open a bank account, get a phone SIM card, register for health insurance and apply for your ARC (alien registration card).

What to bring. The weather in March is still cold (around 5°C), so you should bring a warm jacket. You should also bring passport photos (at least six), your original certificates, and some money for the first month (we suggest 500,000 won).

Questions? Could you please reply by 10 February to confirm your flight number and arrival time? If you have any questions, please call us on +82 42 123 4567 (Monday to Friday, 9 am to 6 pm Korea time).

We look forward to meeting you!

Ms Park Ji-yeon
International Office

3 Choose the correct answer

1. Where will volunteers meet the students?
   A Gate 6, Terminal 1 B at the campus C Gate 1, Terminal 6
2. How will students recognise the volunteers?
   A They will hold a sign. B They will wear blue T-shirts. C They will call them.
3. Why is International House good?
   A It is cheaper and good for making friends. B Every student has a private room.
   C You can cook in your room.
4. Which is NOT in orientation week?
   A opening a bank account B a city tour C applying for an ARC
5. How many passport photos should students bring?
   A at least six B two C none
6. What must students do by 10 February?
   A pay the fee B confirm their flight details C call the office

4 Find the language

2. (Have you ever met / Did you ever meet) a famous person?
3. Yes! I (have met / met) Kumar Sangakkara at an event in 2022.

4 Read the model

Experiences that changed me

I have never been abroad, but I have had some important experiences in Sri Lanka.

I have worked as a volunteer. In 2024 I helped at a school for children with disabilities in Galle every Saturday for six months. It taught me to be patient and to communicate without many words.

I have also won a prize. Last year my team won the provincial debate competition. I was nervous, but I spoke clearly and our team got the highest score.

I have never seen snow and I have never eaten Korean food in Korea. I hope these will be my next new experiences!

5 Your experiences

Experience (present perfect)	Details (past simple: when, where, what happened)
I have...
I have...
I have never...

6 Write about your experiences

Write 100 to 120 words. Two experiences with details, and one thing you have never done but want to do. Interviewers often ask "Tell me about an experience that changed you."

Can you do it? Present perfect with ever / never, and past simple for details. ○ ○ ○
